

SENATOR MAURSTAD: This applies to first class, second class and villages only. Does not...this does not apply to primary or metropolitan class.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay, and first class cities are 5,000?

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Ten thousand and above, up to the City of Lincoln.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay. Well, I probably will be...I'm not going to hold up this bill either, I'm going to conclude my remarks, but I probably will be voting against advancement either and I might change my mind at some point as we go along, as we have more chance to discuss it, mainly. But I just have a problem with alternates coming in and filling in for someone when they may not know all the issues. I just...I have a problem with that. So thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Schimek. Senator Maurstad, your light is next, followed by Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: I would call the question.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I see five hands. The question before you is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? There's been a request for a call of the house. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 15 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, to place the house under call.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The house is under call. Would senators please return to their seats. Will all unauthorized personnel please return to the...please leave the floor. The house is under call. Will senators please check in. Call-in votes are being accepted. The question before you is the...ceasing debate on the advancement of LB 193. Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Why don't we have a roll call.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Abboud, Senator Avery, Senator Beutler, Senator Bernard-Stevens, Senator Brashear, Senator Preister, Senator Robak, Senator Robinson, and Senator
